Expression of Interest (EOI) Form

TYTO REGIONAL ART GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

When are exhibitions selected?

- Gallery bookings are ideally made at least 12 to 18 months in advance. At this stage we are welcoming all expressions of interest.
- We encourage you to speak with the Gallery Coordinator before submitting your expression of interest. We want you to know in advance what we are looking for to assist in submitting a successful application.

Who reviews the Expressions of Interest?

- The EOI form is assessed by the Gallery Coordinator and the TYTO Precinct Manager.

Assessment Criteria

Exhibition applications will be assessed by the following criteria, presented here in order of significance from highest to lowest.

Key Criteria:

- The exhibition explores a cohesive theme.
- The artworks demonstrate proficiency in the chosen medium with suitable aesthetic appeal.
- The exhibition will extend visitors' knowledge and appreciation of visual arts practices and techniques.
- The exhibition fulfils professional regional gallery standards.

Desirable criteria:

- The exhibition is not significantly motivated by commercial interests/outcomes.
- The majority of works should not have been exhibited elsewhere in the region and not be strongly similar to other works already exhibited locally.

What happens after I submit my Expression of Interest form?

- All applicants will receive a letter confirming receipt of their Expression of Interest and advising when applications will be reviewed.
- Successful applicants will receive an information pack containing proposed exhibition dates and all details you need to decide if you want to go ahead with making a booking.
